Appreciate Your PASTOR

We ask you, brothers, to respect those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. - 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13

In my article this month, I want to give you some "creative" or "other" ways to let your Pastor and staff know that you truly appreciate them in October and beyond. These are things that you can do on a regular basis to help your pastor maintain his spiritual, mental and emotional strength as he serves you.

PRAY for your Pastor, Staff, & their Families

Obvious, right? I hope so, but I want to remind you anyway. I'm aware that there are many jobs that are tough and difficult and most people work hard. We know that. But there is a special weight, a spiritual burden, that accompanies shepherding. And as a PK (preachers kid) turned preacher and PK Dad, it is a family affair. Please pray for them.

SERVE with your Pastor & Staff

Don't wait for them to come and beg you. Just show up to church and offer to serve with them and help them. Be a Champion Leader for a ministry that they are doing. Get behind them in full support.

PROTECT your Pastor and Staff

Protect their respect. As far as it is up to you, hold your pastor and staff in high esteem. Speak highly of them, especially in front of your children. Resist the urge to criticize or serve that special "roast" at Sunday lunch. If there is an issue or problem, and that happens, honor the Lord and handle it with them in person as the Scripture commands.

Protect them as they enter a service. Don't drop a problem or bomb on them as the service is starting, spare them the distraction until after they have shared a message.

Protect them by doing all you can to protect their family time and hold them accountable to observe a Sabbath. The Lord has told us all to do that so let's practice it and make sure your staff is practicing it as well.

Take Notes & Share "Why" the Sermon was good

Here's a fun one that you can do every week. Take notes during that sermon that your Pastor has worked diligently on through the week. And don't just say, "Good message," rather say something like, "That eighth point really spoke to me." Or, "God really spoke to me through the way you explained those verses this morning." One of my most cherished compliments was always, "I finally understand that passage after all these years!"

It doesn't take a whole lot to APPRECIATE us so Give it a try this month! You are loved!!

Bro. Andy

MINISTRY NEWS

September has flown by with so many wonderful things that God is doing across our association and beyond. I was privileged to spend a few days at the North American Mission Board for the yearly AMS Excellence Conference. It's always a blessing for me to be on the NAMB campus and encouraging and inspiring to meet with Associational Missionaries from all over the country.

We had a couple of great services at Lakeview Baptist during the middle of the month. I preached about God's work in the lives of Paul and Silas in Acts 16. What a powerful story about our God who will show His power in our lives as we serve Him.

On Monday, September 23, our Pastor's Fellowship was given a tour of the First Choice Women's Center of Lagrange by Michelle Thompson and her staff. Michelle has spent over 15 years serving at the Women's Center and is doing a terrific job leading the staff as they serve our county. The First Choice Women's Center is on the front line in the battle for the lives of unborn children in our area. They are also on the front line for their clients and families by bringing the Gospel of Jesus Christ to each of the women they serve who are in need of love and support. We are blessed to have this ministry in Troup County and I would encourage you to support them by volunteering, donating, and praying for their work. You can contact Michelle at the center by calling 706-884-3833. Find the announcement for their upcoming benefit in this edition of The Messenger.

Finally, on Saturday, September 29, Kim and I enjoyed the Open House at Bethel Baptist Church in West Point. Just a year and a half ago, Bethel's building was destroyed by a tornado but with God's hand at work, they have rebuilt and are worshipping Him each week in their new building. Their testimony is "to God be the Glory" for His mercy and blessings!

HURRICANE HELENE RESPONSE

As we print this newsletter, information and news is coming in about the terrible disaster that Hurricane Helene brought to the southeast. We are gathering information and will be working to help those who have been impacted by this storm. Until we have more information, here are some things you can do:

1. PRAY for those who are hurting and those who are serving and helping during the days ahead. Please pray.
2. GIVE through reliable and safe channels where 100% of your money will go to help others. My suggestions are:
<https://troubaptist.org/give>
<https://missiongeorgia.org/>
<https://www.sendrelief.org/>
3. Begin collecting basic needs at your church so that you are ready when the needs are known.

BCM NEWS

Monday nights are a highlight of the week for me. That's because I get to dive into the word with our BCM students at LaGrange College. I tell people that each week is a PACKED HOUSE with POWERFUL Bible Study. It's a joy to see new students each week and to watch our BCM leadership team pour into the lives of others as they teach, share, and pray with them each week. It's a joy to serve with them as they reach their peers for Jesus. Please continue to pray for the ministry and if you would like to provide snacks or give to support this ministry, call the TBA for more information.

On The Lighter Side

Little Ben came into the house with a new harmonica. 'Grandpa, do you mind if I play this in here?' 'Of course not, Ben. I love music. In fact, when your Grandma and I were young, music saved my life.' 'What happened?' 'Well, it was during the famous Johnstown flood. The dam broke, and when the water hit our house, it knocked it right off the foundation. Grandma got on the dining room table and floated out safely.'

'How about you?'

'Me? I accompanied her on the piano!'
